FEDERAL GRAND JURY CRIMINAL INDICTMENTS ANNOUNCED

David E. O'Meilia, United States Attorney for the Northern District of Oklahoma, announces the results of the April 2004 Federal Grand Jury.

The following named individuals have been charged with a federal crime or crimes by the return of an indictment by the Grand Jury. The return of an indictment is a method of informing the defendant of alleged violations which must be proven in a court of law beyond a reasonable doubt to overcome the defendant's presumption of innocence.

Ten Defendants Charged In Interstate Gun Trafficking Scheme. The Grand Jury returned ten separate indictments in a major gun trafficking scheme. The details are addressed in a separate two page news release from the U.S. Attorney's Office.

Mary Lafficar Doyle. Theft Of Government Funds. Doyle, 41, of Tulsa, is charged with illegally receiving Title XVI Social Security benefits from May 2001 through September 2002. It is alleged that the monthly benefits paid to another individual through Doyle, the designated payee, should have ceased when the other individual was incarcerated during the above stated time period by the Oklahoma Department of Corrections.

Mark Edward Sells. Possession Of An Unregistered Destructive Device. The defendant, 41, of Bixby, is accused of knowingly possessing a destructive device, a pipe bomb, on March 12, 2004. The alleged bomb was in the form of a galvanized metal pipe, five inches long and one inch in width, and contained a charge of rifle powder.

Marco Demon Campbell. Possession With Intent To Distribute A Controlled Substance, Felon In Possession Of Firearm And Ammunition. Campbell, 22, of Tulsa, is charged with the crime of possession of cocaine with intent to distribute on March 4, 2004. He also allegedly had a 30-06 rifle and ammunition in his possession after having a previous felony conviction for auto burglary in Tulsa County in 2003.

Drukyel Necole Gaines. Conspiracy, Fraud In Connection With Access Devices. Gaines, 21, of Tulsa, while employed with First Data Corporation, a credit card processing center located in Tulsa, allegedly used her position sometime in January 2004 to gain information about individual customer accounts. Then she allegedly used the information to cause a new credit card in another's name to be mailed to herself, which she and others used to obtain cash advances for personal use.

Marion Stuart Hamilton. Counterfeiting Obligations Or Securities Of The United States. The defendant, 42, of Chouteau, Oklahoma, is charged with manufacturing approximately $10,000 in counterfeit currency between January 1, and February 10, 2004. The alleged counterfeit money was in the form of $5, $10, $20 and $100 bills. If found guilty, the government is asking for forfeiture of the defendant's color printer/scanner used in the alleged crime.

Engla Dashawn Morris. Possession Of Counterfeit Obligations Or Securities Of The United States, Possession Of Counterfeit Securities (Bank Account Checks). Morris, 30, of Tulsa, is accused of having in her possession on January 7, 2004, $100.00 in counterfeit currency, and approximately 18 counterfeit business checks totaling $24,831.03.

Joseph Andrew Obrochta, Jr. Receipt Of Graphic Image Files Of Minors Engaged In Sexually Explicit Conduct Obrochta, 57, of Tulsa, is charged with possessing on his computer on February 3, 2004, a number of image files containing visual depictions of minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct.

Adam Nathaniel Peterson. Uttering Counterfeit Securities Of The United States Or Private Organizations. The defendant, 25, of Tulsa, allegedly passed a number of large counterfeit checks to Tulsa motorcycle and car dealers in December 2003. The checks listed in the indictment were a $20,385.20 check to Meyers-Duren for a motorcycle, $21,105.00 to Brad Noe Autoplex for a Volkswagen Jetta, $33,422.00 to Riverside Nissan for a Nissan 350Z. He is also charged with writing a $950.00 counterfeit check to Cam Cars of Locust Grove, Oklahoma. All of the alleged counterfeit checks were "certified" checks and purportedly issued by the Tulsa Federal Employees Credit Union of Tulsa.

Steven Todd Bay. Possession Of Graphic Image Files Of Minors Engaging In Sexually Explicit Conduct. It is alleged that Bay, 42, of Bartlesville, possessed in May 2000, a number of computer graphic image files with visual depictions of minors engaging in sexually explicit conduct

Sealed and Superseding Indictments

The Grand Jury returned eleven indictments that remain sealed. There was one superseding indictment returned in the matter of Martin Shane Yoho, et al., a Bank Robbery charge originally indicted in March 2004.

Project Safe Neighborhoods

The SAFE logo indicates that a serious federal firearms violation is alleged and is being brought to the indictment stage by a coordinated effort of area law enforcement. SAFE, also known locally as CEASEFIRE, is the Northern District of Oklahoma's law enforcement component of President Bush's Project Safe Neighborhoods (PSN) initiative.
